Nauset Tides
1975
Nauset Regional High School

North Eastham, Massachusetts

The longer we live the stronger the ties become which attract us toward another world . . .

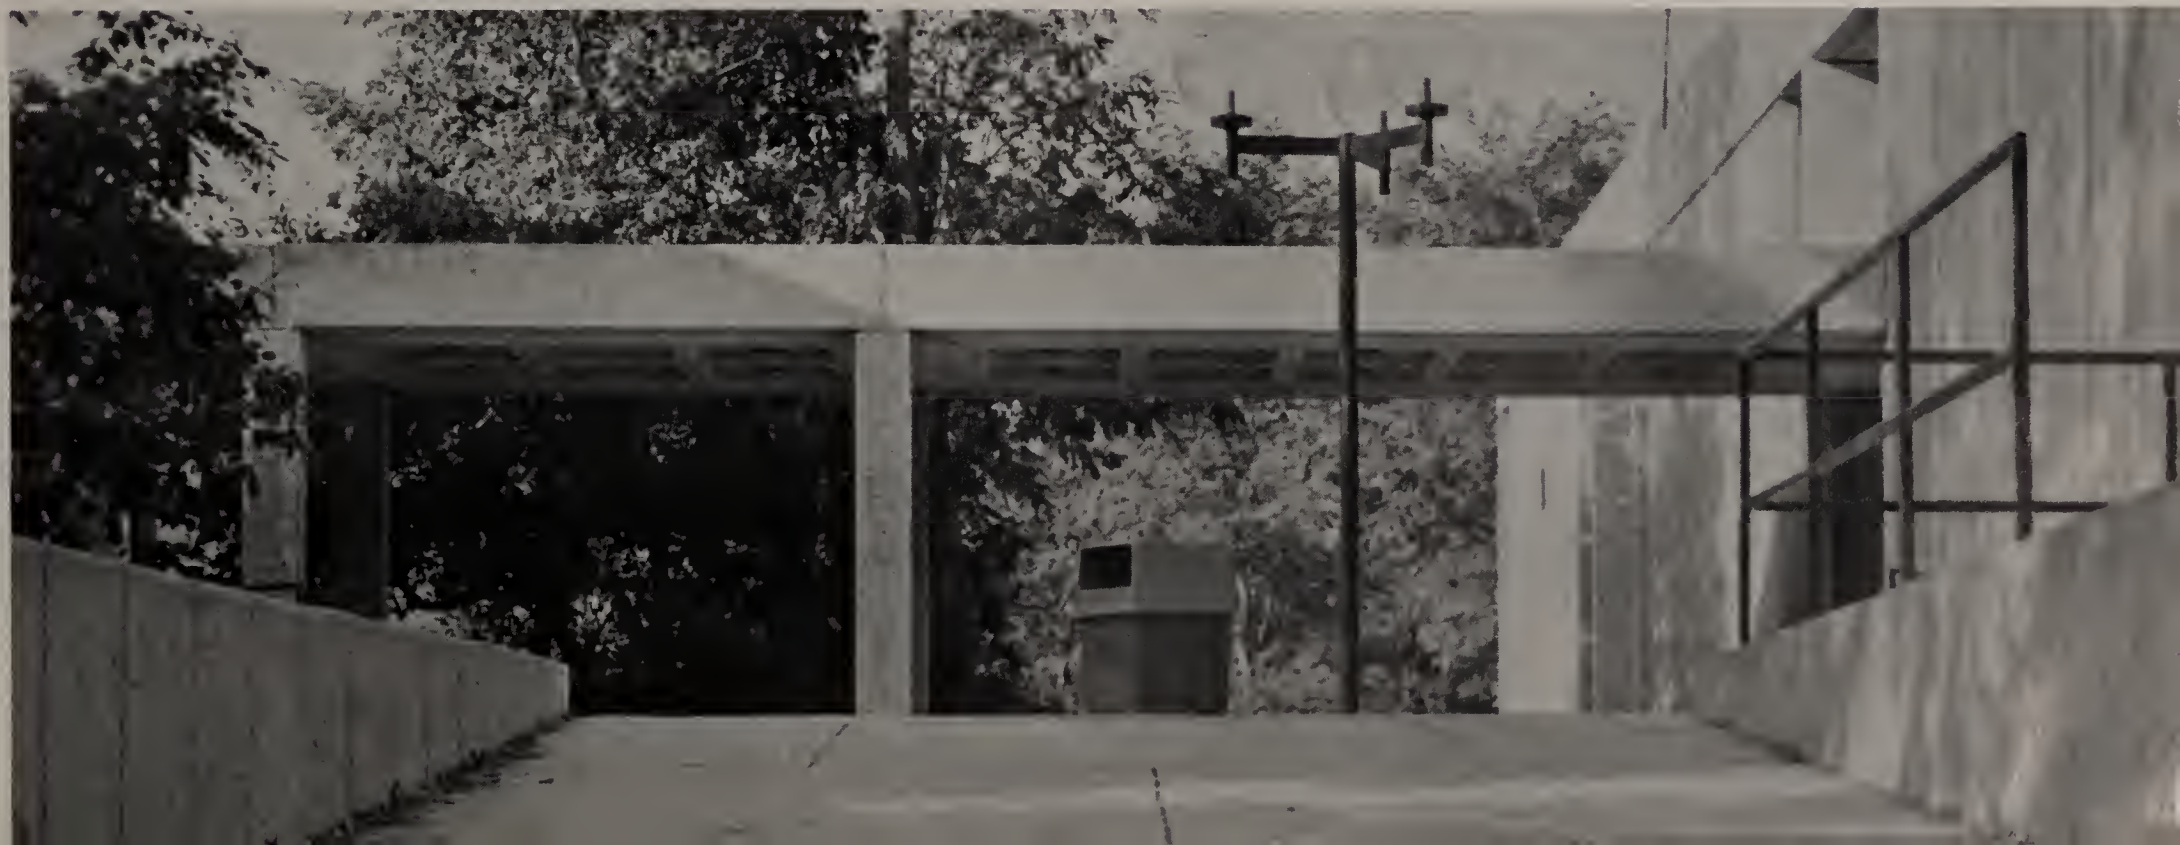

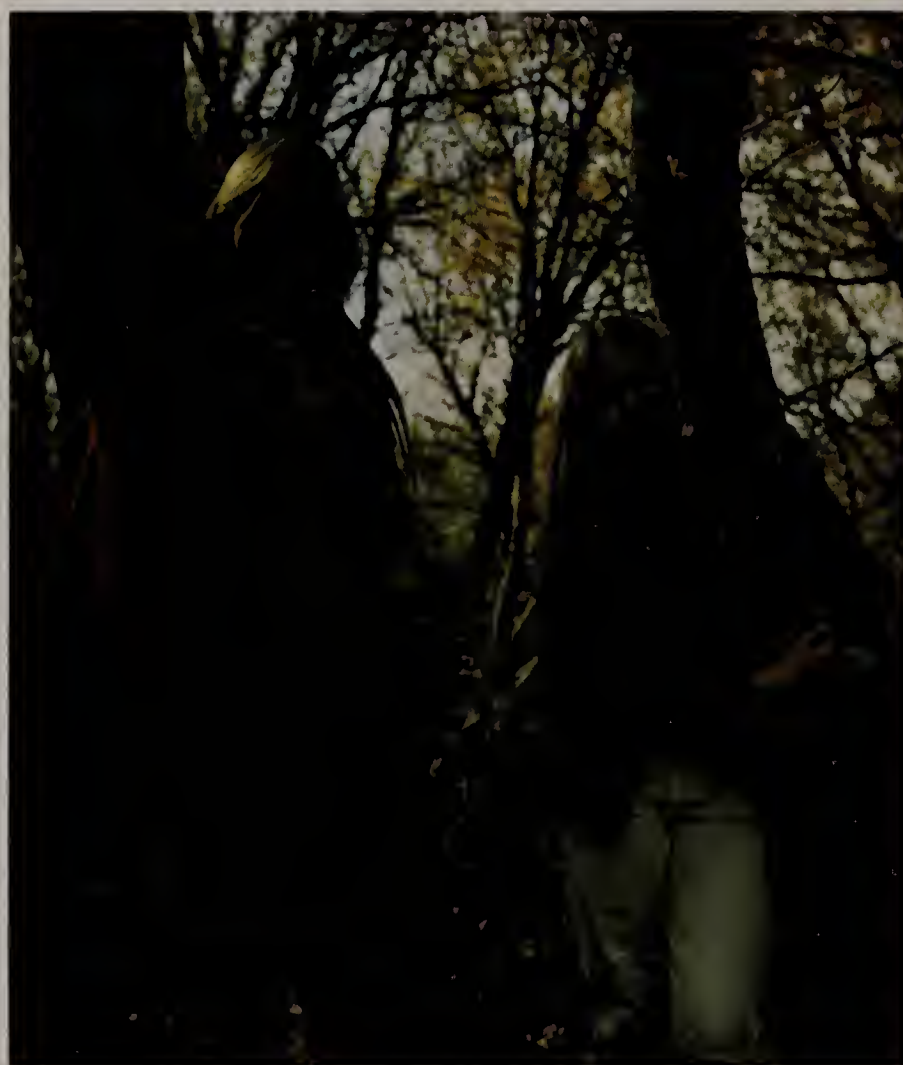

During life we move from one place to another with reluctance to leave the old but . . .

. . . so eager are we for the new that we cannot be held back.

When the time comes we can look forward with eager curiosity and glad hopefulness to the new world which the unknown voyage will bring us.

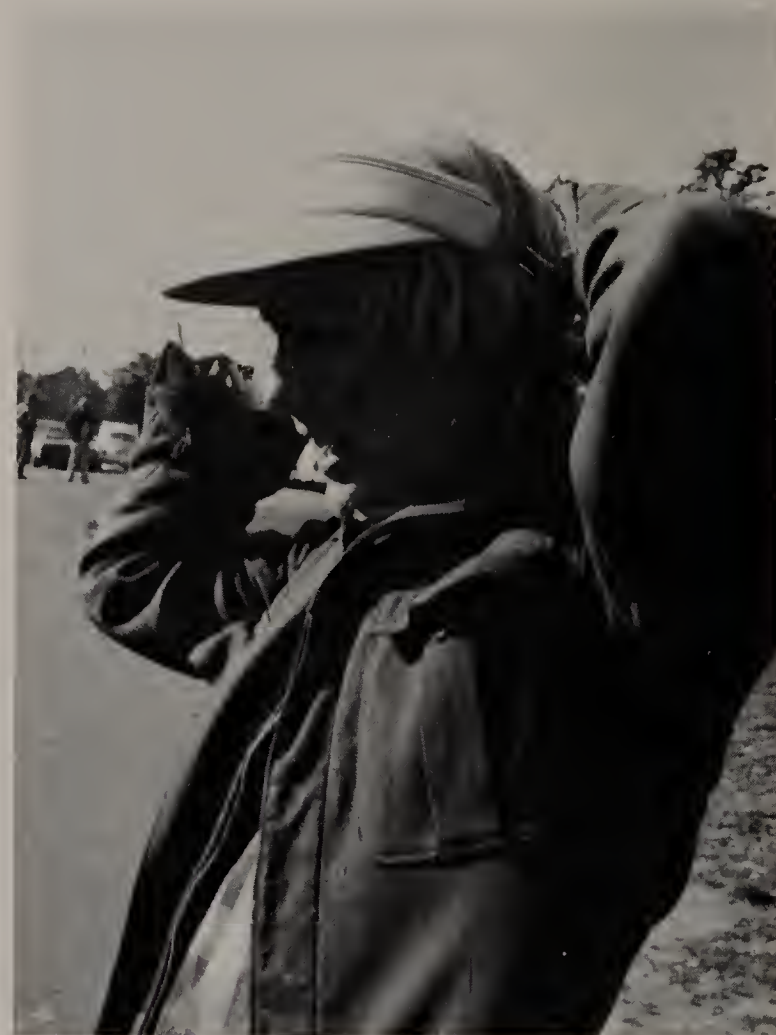

There is often conflict between the ideal and the practical, the remote and the immediate . . .

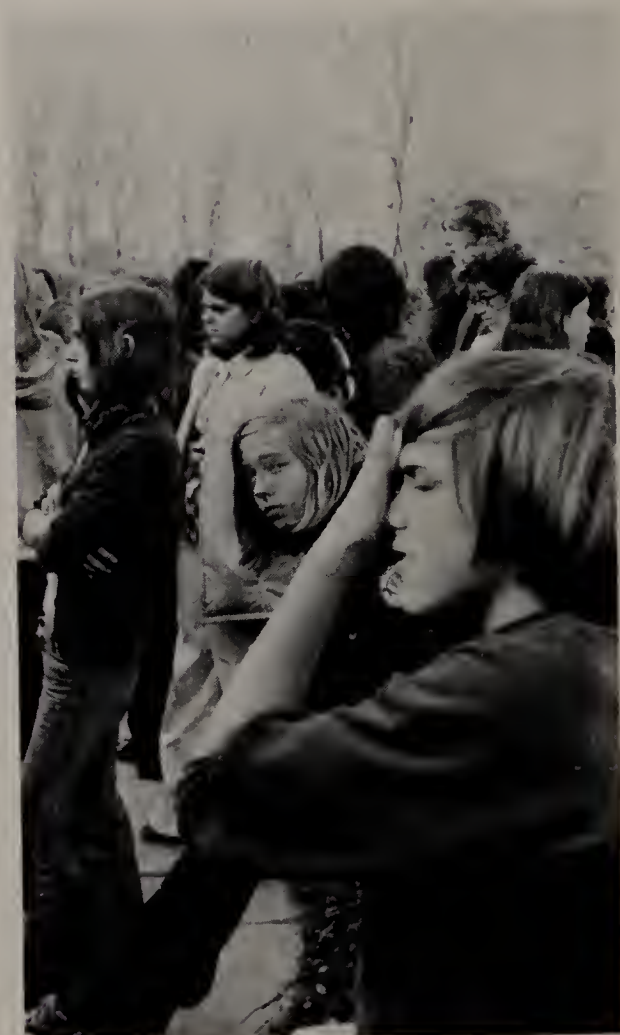

At times we find ourselves doing what we do not want to do and failing to do what we ought to do.

. . . In spite of ourselves we are held in the grip of some Power that controls our acts and decisions

“Give me one chance, let me show you what I’ve found.”

SENIORS

He gave one last look across the sky, across that magnificent silver land where he had learned so much.

Nauset Drama

Nauset Drama had its usual busy and productive year. Director Virginia Emerson lost many of her finest performers with the 1974 graduating class and was faced with a green and relatively inexperienced group of students. Drama night, held December 13 and 14 gave the kids their first taste of theatre and they came through like professionals. John Bahr and Joe Porro were particularly exciting. The program was varied and demanding and was a valuable experience.

Massachusetts Drama Guild Competition was held at Bridgewater-Raynham H.S. and Nauset entered "Absurd Person Singular", a challenging comedy starring John Bahr, Jean LaPiana, Peter Gawle, Lewis Pettengill, and Ann Hartley.

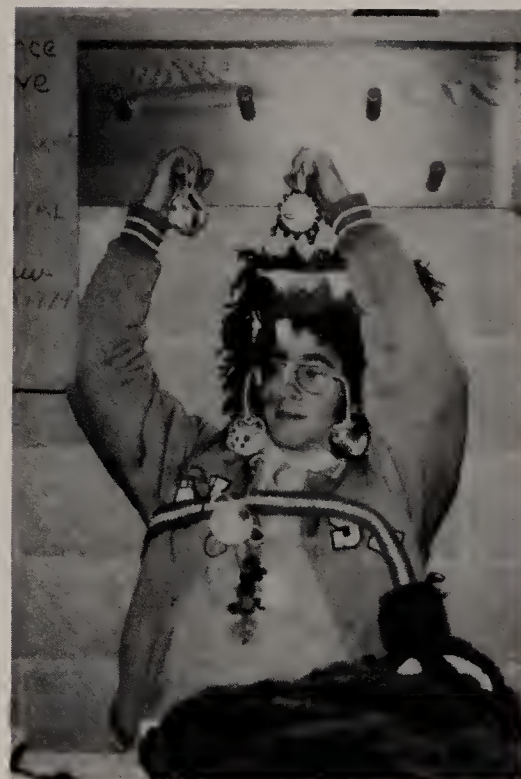

The spring musical was "Oklahoma" and the stars were Bridget Usher and John Bahr. Betsy Clark was student director for the year. It was hoped that the musical would be an artistic and financial success so that scholarships could be given on a yearly basis. The Class of 1974 was awarded $600 in the first of such drama recognition.

FNA

The Future Nurses' Club has had a busy year. We went to see New England Deaconess and Peter Bent Brigham Hospitals. To raise our yearly scholarship money we had a combination rummage, handicrafts, and bake sale. We earned $190.00. We also had a Health Careers Conference. The officers this year were Shelley Wallace — treasurer, Lynn Collins — secretary, Elaine Beals — vice president, and Cathy Stewart — president.

Ski Club

The ski club is a new club this year, but with all the interest and enthusiasm in the club, it will probably continue for many more years.

The group went on a trip to Campton N. H. for a skiing weekend February 7, 8, and 9th. The highlight of the weekend was the medal-winning of two ski club members. Keith Mazzaresse and Andy Pye took two silver and bronze medals, respectively, in the NASTAR-sponsored Giant Slalom event.

The group raised money for the trip by different activities around and about the school.

Newspaper Staff

Nauset Light

NAUSET LIGHT made a fresh start, this year, with a brand-new editor, Brenda Pettengill (BLP to her intimates). A brand-new name, NAUSET LIGHT (courtesy of Betsy Clark, co-editor). And a brand-new cover (also courtesy of Betsy Clark, assisted by Mr. James Owens). The staff, greatly enlarged, enjoyed greater participation, and enthusiasm than previous years. It is devoutly hoped that the informative and humorous tone of NAUSET LIGHT will continue.

This year, as usual, the yearbook staff has given its all to meet the deadlines. For the first time, Mrs. Demetri and the Business Department have helped us with fund raising and bookkeeping, and we hope they will continue this in future years. To raise money we put on two dinners, and sold Golden Books. We regretfully found that due to declining economy that prices in the future years may have to go up. Our editor is Jean LaPiana, and the assistant editor is Marion Pilling. And of course we are greatly appreciative of the help given to us by our Yearbook Representative from Western, Mr. Dick, and our faculty advisers, Mr. Gray, Mrs. Stout, and Mrs. Demetri.

Art Appreciation

The art appreciations are an enthusiastic, hard working group who have raised funds for a three day field trip to New York City by putting on a dinner called Gastronomic Masterpiece and a Viennese "Kaffee Klatsch".

The members study concepts of art rather than straight history.

The year's officers were President Tim Thomas, and Treasurer John Bahr.

Independent Study

UNDERCLASSMEN

And then you will be ready to begin the most difficult, the most powerful, the most fun of all. You will be ready to begin to fly up and know the meaning of kindness and of love.

Captain Russell Bassett and Coach Jim Yeutter

The soccer season came to an end with a loss to Duxbury, the eventual Eastern Massachusetts Champions, in the semi-finals of the E. Mass. Tournament. The game was tied at the end of 4 overtime periods and was decided by penalty shots. Prior to the game the Warriors had defeated Medfield 1-0 in a marathon two-day affair when Russell Bassett drilled one home in the 5th sudden death overtime.

The league record stood at 9-3-4. One of the ties being 1-1 at Sandwich which was the only blemish on their undefeated season. The second Sandwich game proved to be just as exciting and a good deal rougher as Kim Shea, our fine goalie, left the game in the first quarter with a concussion.

Great promise is held for next year as eight starters will be returning. The defense will be sound with everyone back except the goalie. David Lajoie (E. Mass. All-Star) and Rich Higgins (hat trick in All Star game) will supply the offensive punch. All Cape All-Stars: First Team — Russell Bassett, David Lajoie; Second Team — Dana Eldridge, Rick Higgins.

Boys' Junior Varsity Soccer

The Nauset JV's prepped themselves for varsity competition as they played to a 5-7 season. The team was made up of sophomores and two freshmen who shared the duties in goal.

The strength of the team was its enthusiasm and willingness to work and learn. Game captains and leaders on the field were fullback Howdy White and Rob Peters who played all positions. Scoring leaders on the team were Kenny Bassett, Rob Moss, and Clint Newcomb. Coach Paul White foresees many of this year's squad trying for spots on next year's varsity.

Boys' Freshman Soccer

The 1974 edition of Nauset's Freshman Soccer Team played a limited schedule. With Falmouth and D-Y having the only other Freshman teams in the Cape & Islands Soccer League, the boys played two games each against J.V. clubs from Upper Cape and Martha's Vineyard.

Generally the team exhibited good defensive talent, and individual and team skills improved noticeably as the season progressed.

Steve Jalbert did most of the goal-keeping and the defense was led by Eric Maker, Rob Fettig and Jim Gage. Russ Packett and Brian Higgins led the offense.

This year's Freshmen showed the promise of upholding Nauset's outstanding soccer tradition on the varsity level.

The Cross Country season was one of rebuilding, with loss of Ed McPartland and only 3 returning lettermen. The lettermen were Captain David McPartland, John Doucette and Billy Hayes. The record of 2-9 was disappointing, but the rapid improvement of Freshmen Curt Trautz, Randy Dickson and Steve Peters makes the outlook for next season very bright.

After overcoming the loss of nine of last years senior players, Coach Diane Campbell's Varsity Field Hockey Team missed capturing the league championship, by placing third in the final standings, one point behind the top two teams. The Warriorettes led by Cape All Stars Wendy Underhill, Lori Newcomb and Dawn Fancy fought their way into the Mass. District II State Tournament where the team fell to Dennis-Yarmouth in the semi-final round.

Cheerleaders

Nauset's Cheerleaders worked diligently creating "school spirit". The Soccer Cheerleaders were wind-blown and rained-on and sometimes even scorched but always visible on the far out Soccer field. Donna Guisto and Candy Roman, co-captains, led Vicky Richardson, Debbie Gombos, Jenny Fates, Debbie Boynton, Patty Kerwin, and Alison Roman through a long season — including a Boston tournament.

Basketball season reflected as much enthusiasm but some changed faces. Donna Guisto and Candy Roman co-captained Vicky Richardson, Debbie Gombos, Debbie Boynton, Jenny Fates, Alison Roman, Barbara Chase and Tina Jans, alternate. An overnight trip to Martha's Vineyard was the highlight of a very successful season. The cheerleaders hope they contributed to the excellent Nauset sport year.

Cape & Islands Basketball Champs

After suffering through Martha's Vineyard's domination of the league for too long, Nauset finally turned the tables this year and won the Cape & Islands League championship with a 13-1 league record, the only loss being to Provincetown for which Nauset had sweet revenge in the final game of the season. The most emotional game was one that most of us could only listen to over WVLC, and that was when Nauset came from 13 points behind on the Vineyard to win by 10 in overtime.

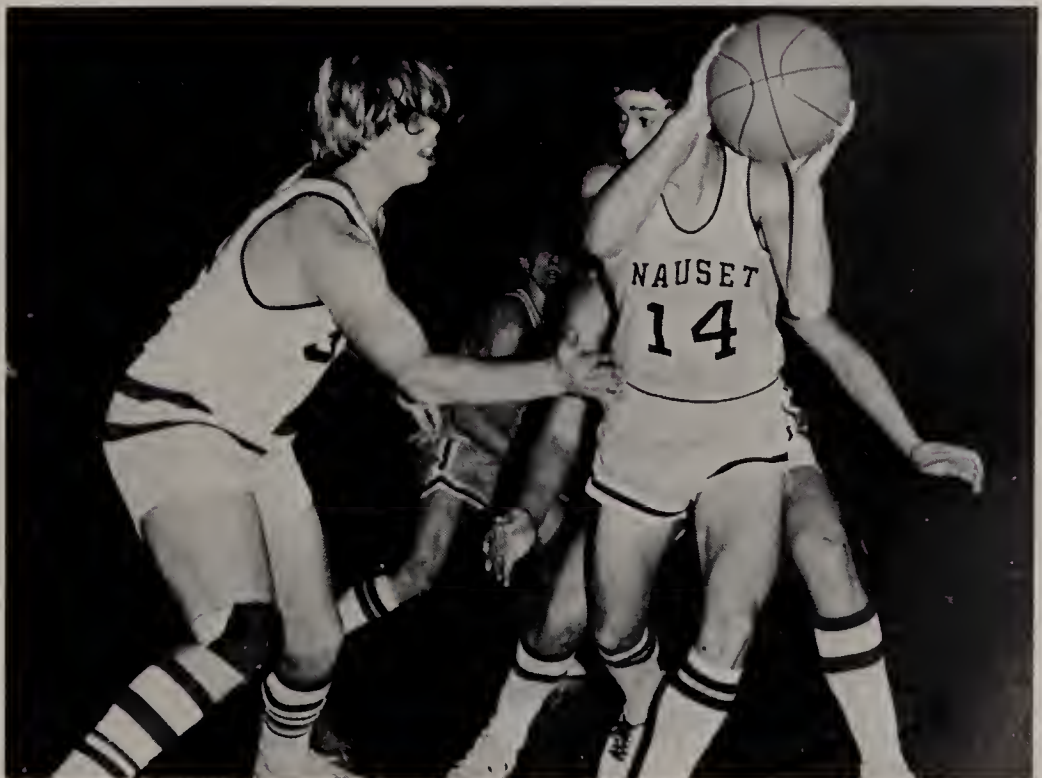

Steve Oliver was the leading scorer in almost every game and ended with one of the best individual records in the state. The other starting seniors, Don Reeves, Bill Heines, and Kim Shea, all had great years, and Dave Lajoie and Dana Eldredge give us high hopes for next year.

Nauset had to move up to Division II in the State Tournament, and that was a little too much for us to expect a championship, but it was still a great year.

Boys Junior Varsity Basketball

Left to Right: John Doucette, Clint Newcomb, Ed Tartaglia, Steve Backus, Peter McCray, Robert Peters, Richard Niven, Howdy White, Robert Moss, Andy LaPiana, Tom Carroll, Billy Hayes. Sitting: Mike Estrata, Coach Jim Yeutter, Richard Houston.

This was a great year for the Junior Varsity under Coach Jim Yeutter. Nauset was undefeated in the league and lost only a single game all season. Pete McCray ended up as our high scorer with Andy LaPiana second. Richard Niven was good enough to move up to the Varsity occasionally, but it was depth and team work that were our chief assets as even with the second five players in there, Nauset often still outscored the opposition. The future looks good.

Girl's Junior Varsity Basketball

Coach Bob Rice and his girls had only a so-so won and lost record in girls' junior varsity basketball this year, but the improvement shown by individuals and the spirit and teamwork of the entire squad prove that in reality this was a successful year in terms of building a sound basis for future wins.

Girl's Varsity Basketball

With a new coach, Paul White, and a new system, it took Nauset a while to reach the level of play expected, but by the end of the season, the Warriorettes were probably the second best team in southeastern Mass. The trouble was that the best team was in our league — Martha's Vineyard, and although we led them for three periods in the final away game, they edged us out at the end. Although the girls will miss four fine seniors next year, they have a returning nucleus that could bring us a 1975-76 championship.

Gymnastics

Coach Diane Campbell started gymnastics this year on a club basis, but the team met regular squads from bigger schools and turned out to be a real success story. Despite having only sophomores and freshmen doing our scoring, Nauset still managed to win three meets, two against Falmouth and one against Barnstable. Even in their losses to more experienced girls, Nauset looked good (especially in their flashy yellow uniforms.)

Next year this will be a full sport, and it should be really exciting for competitors and spectators alike.

This was a disappointing year for Nauset in ice hockey. After a promising start, the team failed to win its big games, dropping the last two games to both Provincetown and Harwich and losing all three to Harwich to end up with a 5-7 record and fourth place.

Jerry Evans did a fine job filling in for Mr. Donahue, who was on sabbatical, but at key moments in too many games, things went wrong, and the theme had to be the old one of "Wait till next year." Next year should be a good one too as only four seniors played this year.

Co-Captains Barry Cummings, Bob Lawless, and Coach Evans.
